Prayer of Confession

Worship Leader

Lord Jesus, you ask us to love our neighbors just as we love ourselves.

Congregation

Yet we often put our own interests first or don't make the effort to love another.

Together

Please mold our hearts to love other people as ourselves. In your name we pray, Amen.

A Most Glorious Banquet (Mathew 26:26-29)

Pastor Peter

Why did Jesus associate with losers and wrong people of the society? His action shows God _____ into His kingdom.

Jesus' _____ table fellowship shows how a renewed people of God could indeed live _____ from God's abundance.

In Luke 14, the servant is told to go out beyond the city. This is a symbolic movement of an outward-mission to the _____.

No one can enter the Kingdom without the _____ of God; no one can remain outside it by one's own deliberate _____.

Reflection/Discussion Questions:

What are your concerns in attending a wedding banquet? How do they relate with participation with the Lord's Supper?

From Jesus' parable in Luke 14, what people do we need to reconcile with in order to attend the promised messianic banquet? What attitude change do we need to change?
