sermon notes

Peter's Miraculous Escape (Acts 12:1-24)

Pastor Peter

The real power of the church lies in the power of _____ - a seemingly impotent force in the face of Herod's armies.

Peter's miraculous escape teaches us faith is _____ by the _____ Lord Jesus can do.

In spite of our refusal to _____, God _____ our prayers beyond what we ask and imagine.

The death of Herod illustrates _____, not _____, will have the last word.

Reflection/Discussion Questions:

Are there any parts of this story you or the average Joe in our society find difficult to believe? If so, why?

According to the book of Acts, how should we Christians respond to the hostility or indifference of the ruling government?

Does this story encourage or discourage you to pray more? How so?
